

LOCAL RECAPITULATION.

There are only seven prisoners in the county jail at present.

There will probably be a Bee Line excursion to Niagara Falls September 8.

Rev. Dr. Leonard arrived at home last evening and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow as usual.

Capt. Duffy, of Central engine house, is spending Sunday with his parents in Bellebrook.

Yessell's mill at New Moorefield, was put up at Sheriff's sale yesterday, but no bidders found.

There is a great deal of cholera morbus among the children in this city just at present.

Market was crowded last night, and the amount of produce brought to the city was very large.

Crowds will probably go to Urbana today. A large number of Springfielders are already on the ground.

The better shop nuisance on Washington street has been stopped, and active work is now limited to the daylight hours.

Cor. the little daughter of Daniel Hanse, living north of the city, died yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Scipio Baker recently enjoyed an extended pleasure trip in the Northwest, at St. Paul, Minneapolis, and the Northwest summer resorts.

The office of recorder is not paying a vast sum of shuckles to the holder at present. The entire amount taken in here yesterday only amounted to $1.50.

The number of funerals at Ferncliff lately has been something phenomenal. There were two on Thursday, two on Friday, three on Saturday and one for tomorrow.

Last night was one of the dulles for local news in the history of the city. The usual standstills of the police absolutely refused to do anything diabolical enough for which to run them in.

Mrs. Condon complained to Officer Bass last evening that she had lost her purse in market. She had laid it on a stand while looking at some vegetables, and when she went a few minutes, it was missing.

The following programme will be rendered this morning at the First Presbyterian church: To Deum in B flat, Rumbach; offertory, "She was a despised and rejected," from the Messiah, Miss Alice Voss.

P. A. Wilson, who had his back broken recently in the course of a friendly wrestle at Oakbrook, will probably die. Four physicians consulted on his case yesterday. He is a brother of B. F. Wilson, yard clerk of the I. B. & W.

The demand for the GLOBE REPUBLIC, containing reports of the G. A. R. encampment, was unprecedented and still continues. It is gratifying to know that our efforts to give all the camp news, has met with such hearty appreciation.

Mary McGee, who was reported as being arrested on a warrant charging her with disorderly conduct yesterday, calls on us to say that such was not the case. She was present in the court in company with a lady friend, who was arrested.

The patrol wagon had a call from the "chill" box, last night about 11 o'clock, to a house of ill-fame on York street. Eight in all were arrested. Their names are: Hog Howard, Dil Richards, John Price, John Mason, Bill Underwood, Belle Taylor, Nettie Taylor and Liz Miller.

The republican wigwag has received a coat of deep red paint, and the striking appearance it gives the building is remarkable. The shade selected was a deep crimson and makes the building very prominent, without being gaudy. Now the building has been painted red on the outside, the republicans must not fail to "paint" the inside the same color. The old wigwag will witness some magnificent republican meetings this fall.

Edward O. Kershner, the forger who was last night brought back by Detective John T. Norris, was taken before Squire Rightmeyer this afternoon, and waived examination in sum of $500. Bond was furnished and it is to be seen if Kershner will make another wild break for liberty. His wife has some property, a house and lot, and it is understood that she has concluded to sell it in order to save her husband from the penitentiary.

The wheat crop in Clark county is about all harvested. It was thought that the crop would not reach one-fourth the average, but the yield is now estimated at one-third of a crop. The corn will be the heaviest in many years, provided early frost does not injure it. The truss looks very well, and there will be full crops of all kinds, including small truss. The crop of oats is very large. The cause of the heavy crops of oats and corn is because many wheat fields were plowed up by the farmers as soon as they were harvested, and the wheat was winter-killed.

A SPRINGFIELD STAR.

A Former Lady of This City to go on the stage.

The item in the dramatic department of the Cincinnati Enquirer, stating that Mrs. Nettie Van Sickle would shortly enter the dramatic profession and play emotional roles, was received in this city with great interest. Mrs. Van Sickle was formerly Miss Nettie Flack. Miss Flack, together with her sister, Miss Florence Flack, attended the high school in this city but a few years ago. Members of the Star and Crescent Literary Society will remember with what eager anticipation Miss Nettie's recitations were all ways awaited, and with what breathless interest the pupils followed her through some pathetic story or stirring poem. Miss Flack has appeared on the stages of both the Grand and Black's opera houses. She took the part of the heroine in the "Drammer Boy of Shiloh," which was given by the local talent. She also appeared as leading lady in the "Color Guard," the military drama given at the Grand opera house a year or so ago. Miss Flack is very emotional in her style of acting, and is at home in parts requiring much pathos. Her reading voice is extremely strong, penetrating and sweet. Her stage presence is excellent, and though she would have trouble in depicting the lighter emotions or comedy, she is fitted to reach the highest rank in the emotional school of acting.

While moving in the society of this city, the elocutionary powers of Miss Flack were frequently called upon for the improvement and delight of her friends. Mr. Van Sickle was formerly a photographer in this city, but withdrew from business recently. The friends of the lady prophesy for her a brilliant future in her chosen calling.

DOINGS IN SPRINGFIELD SECRET SOCIETIES.

Matters of import to the Oath-Bound Brothers—Meetings, Elections, and Personal Mention of Active Members—Where They go and What They Do.

Camp 51 at last meeting elected delegates and alternates to the state camp as follows: Delegates—Past President A. R. Straw, President George L. Payne and Past President Thomas Ross. Alternates—Past President G. M. Bat, C. E. Bat and brother Wm. Moon.

The state camp will this year convene at Newark, Ohio, commencing Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, September 8, and continuing two days.

Brother President G. L. Payne was in his chair again at 51 on last meeting after his vacation to assume double harness, and recognizing his responsibilities came to the camp room prepared to "set 'em up" to the members in the shape of a good clear all around. Members not present missed the smoking of a good one. Thanks, George.

On account of the many attractions at the fair grounds and elsewhere on last Thursday evening, it was impossible to get a quorum present at Camp 44, and as a result delegates of said camp could not be elected. If 44 wants representation at the coming state camp, and especially if representation is wanted upon any of the important committees, it becomes necessary that the delegates be elected not later than our next meeting, therefore we would suggest the necessity of a large attendance that such delegates may be elected as will fully represent the needs of the camp.
